Plan Your Visit

Dublin's Heritage Park provides a picturesque environment to walk, relax, picnic, play, and explore Dublin's heritage. Historic buildings preserved within the park include the St. Raymond Church (1859), Murray School (1856) and the Kolb House (1911), along with some of the family's original barns and outbuildings. The grounds include vegetable and flower beds reminiscent of those common in the Kolbs' day.

The Heritage Park is adjacent to Dublin's Pioneer Cemetery, which was established in 1859. A walk along the path in the shade of giant oak and walnut trees takes visitors back in time. An easy history lesson can be obtained by reading the inscriptions on old tombstones and spending a few moments gleaning the facts from the family historical signs.

Park restrooms are located in the Old House building. The park has picnic and game tables, and an area for children's imaginative play behind the Sunday School Barn. Certain areas—the Sunday School Barn, St. Raymond Church, and the picnic tables—are occasionally closed for private events.

Drop-In Tours

Historic buildings and special exhibits are open for self-guided tours during normal museum hours. A permanent exhibit inside the Murray Schoolhouse depicts "The Journey" of European settlers arriving in the Dublin area. The Kolb House, a 1911 Craftsman bungalow, is furnished with original household items from one of Dublin's founding ranching families. Ask about our new self-guided walking tour of Heritage Park and nearby sites of historic interest.

Docent-Led Tours

Guided tours offer links and lessons to local and California history. Tours can be customized for your school, group, club or corporate outing. Tours begin in St. Raymond Church with an orientation video, and then proceed to the Murray Schoolhouse, the Dublin Pioneer Cemetery, and the Kolb House. Additional activities—including tractor and wagon rides, gold panning, a cemetery scavenger hunt, and tea or lemonade service with cookies—can be arranged when you make your reservation. Basic tour fee is $3.50 per person. Reservations are required. For tour reservations and the full menu of add-on activities and prices, call (925) 556-4501.

SPECIAL EXHIBIT

Dublin Schools: 1915, 1950 and Today

Opens October 17, through January
Little Classroom

For more than 90 years, all of Dublin's first-through eighth-grade students shared a one-room schoolhouse. Today Dublin has approximately 5,500 students at seven elementary schools, two middle schools and a high school. This exhibit will depict three classrooms from different eras of Dublin's past: 1915, 1950 and 2015. Starting with the Original Murray Schoolhouse with no electricity or bathrooms, the exhibit will lead visitors to the classic little red schoolhouse of the 1950s, to today's modern high-tech classrooms. Discover how classroom life has changed over the years. Current Dublin Unified School District students will especially enjoy learning about their own schools' histories and namesakes.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Harvest Fair

Saturday, October 17, 1:00-4:00 PM

Free admission; Activities wristband, $5 per person

Celebrate the bountiful harvest with lively bluegrass music and seasonal specialties—apple and pumpkin pie, and caramel apples. Take a tractor-drawn hay wagon ride, pan for gold, or make a corn husk doll to take home. Try your hand at turn-of-the-century tasks like scrubbing laundry on a washboard, churning butter and making apple pie from scratch. Heritage park volunteers will show you how.

Friday, October 30, 7:30-9:30 PM

Kolb Sunday School Barn

$5 Residents, $6 Non-Residents Activity #40043

Brace yourself for a shocking glimpse into Dublin's past, as author-historian Rita Szollos shares pictures and stories of local people and places. Though her "ghosts" aren't likely to haunt your nightmares, we guarantee you'll never look at Dublin the same again. Fortify yourself with a cup of hot cider. Then follow the lighted path to the Kolb House to peek inside the family parlor on a dark and spooky fall evening or, if you dare, venture into the cemetery for a flashlight tour.

Volunteer

Experience the rewards of sharing history by volunteering at the Dublin Heritage Park and Museums. Contact us to learn how you can lead site tours, assist with the park's numerous year-round events, work in the library or perhaps even help in the gardens. With so many different volunteer opportunities, there's sure to be something of interest for you. For more information, call (925) 452-2100.

Join us for a nurturing two, three, or four day thematic-based preschool program with an exciting curriculum that's fun and engaging, and includes parent participation. Staff fosters a warm and caring environment, where each child is free to express themselves, learn new preschool skills, and simply have fun! Students are taught basic social and emotional development, language, communication skills, pre-reading, and cognitive processing skills. We also offer special activity days, both on- and off-site.

Proof of age is required for final acceptance of registration. Children must be fully potty-trained—this program is designed for children who are completely responsible for their own toileting needs without diapers, Pull-ups, or disposable underwear of any kind.

This is a parent-participation preschool program where parents are encouraged to assist in the classroom a minimum number of times as follows, depending on class selection:

Tuesday/Thursday (two days per week students):

Parents are encouraged to volunteer a minimum of 2 times per session.

Monday/Wednesday/Friday (three days per week students):

Parents are encouraged to volunteer a minimum of 3 times per session.

Pre-K and Monday/Tuesday/Wednesday/Thursday (four days per week students):

Parents are encouraged to volunteer a minimum of 4 times per session.

All registered students will be assessed non-participation fees at the time of registration. If a parent elects to work during a session, and is able to fulfill their minimum parent participation requirement, previously assessed non-participation fees will be rolled over towards future preschool session non-participation fees. Non-participation fees will not be refunded during a session; however, they may be refunded upon termination, or at the end of the school year.

Quick Start Tennis

This program works by getting children involved in the game immediately. Specially designed nets and color-coded balls created by the USTA (United States Tennis Association) have revolutionized the game for beginning players. Within the first hour of stepping onto the court, children are playing the game, rallying with one another, and having fun. Scaling the game and court down to their size helps make the learning process easier and more fun. These classes give children confidence by seeing their own immediate progress, making them more enthusiastic about continuing to play and improve. Green level classes prepare players to enter the Tennis Tournament Group: Novice level for players seeking more competitive direction. Note: Online registration is open now for September classes.

Exciting News: Improving the Dublin Library

A Center for the 21st Century Learning: Beginning in late summer, early fall, 2015, the City will begin construction on the 1,464 sq.ft expansion space adjacent to the children's area. This space will be opened as a learning center, supporting diverse programming for adults, teens and children, emphasizing skills needed for thriving in the 21st century economy. The technology for this space will make possible a whole new vision for library programming. Imagine children enjoying stories come to animated life through iPads synced to a larger screen. Dedicated laptops and wireless hotspots will allow teens to explore STEM-based programming via coding classes, web design or 3D printing. The teleconference system will provide classroom participants the ability to virtually connect and collaborate with people a world away. A large-scale HDTV "videowall" screen will allow for everything from community watch parties to remote author book-talks. Stay tuned for further information as this project progresses!

Adult Literacy Reading Club

Weekly on Tuesdays, September 22 through December 8, 6:00 to 8:00 PM in the Library Program Room

Reading Groups are an opportunity for adults to practice their English language conversational skills. Members read the same book and then discuss it at weekly meetings. New learners must schedule an appointment for an orientation and a reading assessment. To sign up, please call the "Write to Read" Adult Literacy office at (510) 745-1480. The minimum requirement is an intermediate reading level in English.

For Seniors: Need Help with Technology? Teens Can Help You Connect!

4th Saturdays: September 26, October 24, November 28 &
December 26, 2:00-4:00 PM in the Group Study Room

This program is for adults who would like personal assistance with computer or electronic devices such as laptops, tablets, digital cameras, e-readers, or smart phones. Stop by and chat with one of one of the Library's volunteer Teen Tech. Volunteers can help you download e-books, explore social media, or conquer your smart phone.
